

Business English Vocabulary: Talking About Salary and Pay

Exercise 1: Key Vocabulary

Read the definitions and match each with the correct word from the box:

Word Bank: gross pay, net salary, overtime, commission, bonus

- a) Your salary after deductions such as tax
- b) Extra money added to your regular salary, often based on performance
- c) Money you earn based on how much you sell
- d) Your salary before any deductions
- e) Payment for working more hours than your contract

Exercise 2: Fill-in-the-Blanks

Complete the sentences using the correct form of the vocabulary words above:

1. My _____ this month is higher than usual because I worked an extra 10 hours.
2. After taxes, my _____ is around 2,500 EUR.
3. The company rewarded me with a _____ for exceeding my sales targets.
4. She earns a _____ on every product she sells.
5. His _____ was quite generous before deductions.